ABOUT SISTER ANNELLA

Born in Moorhead, MN, in 1900, Sister Annella Zervas, OSB, was a Benedictine sister who exhibited profound faith, virtue, and patient endurance of great physical suffering. Sister Annella joyfully said “yes” to God’s invitation to embrace the painful illness that took her life when she was 26. Her inspiring witness continues to uplift the faithful.

ABOUT THE GUILD

The Sister Annella Guild is open to all who feel called to support her cause for canonization.
